Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscription and Advertising.

In response to a request, we give the law as it stands relating to newspapers and subscribers:

Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them till all arrears are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals, they are held responsible until they have satisfied their bill, and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has paid for it or not, is held to be a subscriber.

6. If a subscriber fails to pay his bill, he is liable to give notice to the publisher, at the end of three months, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on, and the subscriber will be responsible until he pays notice with payment of all arrears.

7. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals, they are held responsible until they have satisfied their bill, and ordered them discontinued.

8. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

do you take The Sunny South?

If not, send for it immediately. It is the universal favorite, and all Southerners are proud of it. Let a large club be raised without delay in this community. It is the only illustrated literary weekly in the South, and the press and people everywhere unite in pronouncing it the equal in every respect of any similar publication in America. The best literary talent of the whole country, North and South is writing for it, and it has something each week for all classes of readers. Its stories are superior in literary merit, and equal in thrilling interest, to those of any other paper, and its essays upon all subjects are from the best minds of the age.

In addition to thrilling new stories, a series of brilliant articles will soon begin on the CAMPAIGNS AND BATTLES OF THE ARMY OF TENNESSEE, by Colonel B. W. FROST, a distinguished military engineer of that army in all its trying times. These papers will explain all the movements of Generals Johnston, Hood and Sherman. Don't miss any of the numbers. They will read like a fascinating romance.

New and exciting stories are beginning every week or two.

State and local agents are being appointed everywhere, but let each community form a club at once and send on for the paper. Having passed successfully through two of the hard est years we shall ever see, it now challenges the admiration and unlimited support of the people. The price is $3 a year, but clubs of four and upwards get it for $2.50. Address Jno H. SEALS, Atlanta, Ga.

We club it with the HARTFORD HERALD, and for $4.00 you can secure your home paper and our great Southern literary journal, both of which everybody in this community should sustain.

It Didn't Suit.

Two or three weeks ago a Detroit boy after finishing the last chapter of a book called "The pleasures of the Deep," pleased with his father to let him ship aboard a lake schooner. The old man smiled a grim smile, took the case under consideration, and in a few days the boy was on the rolling deep, having shipped as a greenhorn on a vessel in the lumber trade. He sailed to Saginaw, came back and crossed to Toledo, and next day he appeared in Detroit lame and stiff; his throat sore, one eye nearly shut and a feeling of numbness running all through him.

"What! back again?" cried the old man, as the boy entered the house.

"Yes, father, I want to saw all the wood for winter, bring in all the coal, clean out the cellar and paint the barn and you need not give me more than two meals a day."

"Don't you like sailing?"

"Father, you don't begin to realize anything about it. The Captain sailed right along on Sunday the same as any other day, and I believe he swore even harder. He wouldn't give me any umbrella when it rained, he made me sit up most all night, and two or three times he called me up at midnight and made me haul on ropes and drag old sails around. There wasn't a single night when all of us got off to bed at nine o'clock, and there wasn't a day that he didn't boss us around and break in upon us every time we got to reading anything good! I like land, father and I wish you owned a farm!"

Detroit Free Press.

Some sharper advertised to furnish for $1 infallible instruction "for securing the warm attention of a pretty woman." The answer to applicants for the secret was: "Step on her train."

An Irishman having jumped into the water to save a man from drowning upon receiving a quarter from the person as a reward for his service, looked first at the money and then at him, and at last exclaimed. "I'm overpaid for the job."

An old black woman, reciting her "speeunce," said she had been to heaven. "Did you see any of de colored ladies dar?" asked a younger sister. "Oh, you git out; you 'posse I went in de kitchen when I was dar?"

Misspent Evenings.

The boy who spends an hour of each evening lounging idly on the street corners wastes in the course of a year three hundred and sixty-five precious hours, which, if applied to study, would familiarize him with the rudiments of almost any of the familiar sciences.—If in addition to wasting an hour each evening he spends ten cents for a cigar which is usually the case, the amount thus worse than wasted would pay for ten of the leading periodicals of the country. Boys, think of these things. Think of how much time and money you are wasting, and for what? The gratification afforded by the lounge on the corner, or the cigar is not only temporary, but positively hurtful. You can not indulge in them without seriously injuring yourselves. You acquire idle and wasteful habits, which will cling to you with each succeeding year. You may in after life shake them off, but the probabilities are that the habits thus formed in early life will remain with you to your dying day. Be warned, then, in time, and resolve that as the hour spent in idleness goes forever, you will improve each passing one and thereby fit yourself for usefulness and happiness.

Jefferson's Ten Rules.

Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day.

Never trouble another for what you can do yourself.

Never spend your money before you have it.

Never buy what you don't want because it is cheap.

Pride costs more than hunger, thirst and cold.

Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly.

How much pain the evils have cost that have never happened.

Take things always by the smooth handle.

When angry, count ten before you speak; if very angry count a hundred.
